

God's Providence

Grace in Providence

To talk of the providence of God is one thing; to recognize it in our lives is something else. Anybody can say that God controls everything. However, it takes the grace of God to look trials and difficulties square in the face and say, "This is the will of my heavenly Father concerning me, therefore, I give thanks."

Pastor Jim Byrd